ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE

Special Attractive Bill For the Holidays. Four Shows Christmas Day.

For the last half of this week a very attractive bill has been booked both in vaudeville and motion pictures. There will be a special feature for the children on this bill that will surely please the little ones. Heading the list is the charming comedy, "The Prince Party," in two reels, featuring Francis Bushman. The story is a royal one, and the setting is elaborate and costly. The little figures giving life like impersonations that is a marvel of manipulation. Fifteen minutes of cleverness, cleanness and comedy that will be sure to meet with everyone's approval. In the photo plays the feature is called "The Prince Party," a powerful two reel Donnie drama telling the love story of a girl who never had a chance, featuring Margaret Chaney and Charles Ray. Our Mutual Girl will be on this bill in new adventures, besides introducing her admirers to William Fawcett, a new actor and producer of "The Hawk," now playing on Broadway. The Keystone comedy is called "The Plumber," and in it is seen Charles Murray, the clown who made such a hit in "The Halted Career" not long ago. In the Plumber there are fifteen minutes of good solid laughter. Christmas day there will be four complete shows at this theatre. Matinee at 1.30, and 3.15. Evening at 6.45 and 8.30.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"The Prince Party" Two Reels. Featuring Francis Bushman.

In today's special feature programme, there is much that is found to be exceptionally new and novel, beginning with Francis Bushman's colossal story of royalty entitled "The Prince Party," in two reels. Francis was never seen in a more picturesque character than the one in which he appears today. The story is a royal one, and the settings are beautiful in the extreme, and the story intensely interesting. "The Prince Party" is a superb Biograph film, featuring the most complete of the impressive order, while "The Mexican," a big Selig feature, is a story of romance and adventure. "The Mexican" is a complete today's bill. For Christmas the management has secured a mammoth four reel drama, entitled "A Christmas Carol," in which the Kalem cast featuring Miss Alice Joyce and Guy Combs. This is the stirring drama adapted from a famous incident of the history of the United States. Positively an all star cast will appear in this immense film, including Henry Hallam, Marguerite Courtot, Helen Landroth, Harry Millarde and many others.

Four complete shows Christmas, 1.30, 3, 7, and 8.30.

Gala Holiday Bill at the Auditorium.

A big holiday bill has been booked for the last three days of this week with the Riordan Players, a comedy knockabout sketch with three people in the cast as a feature and Les Binos (formerly the Charivins of this city) as an added feature. Les Binos left this city some years ago and went into vaudeville, doing an equilibrium and acrobatic novelty and succeeded so well that their act was booked not only throughout the United States, but also through a large part of Europe and met with success everywhere. Their many friends will have the pleasure of seeing the act at this house for the last three days of this week. The Riordan Players have a very funny comedy burlesque sketch full of action and funny situations and is bound to be a hit. They have just finished a very successful tour of the larger vaudeville houses throughout New England. The third number on the bill will be Shiple and Adams, a lady and gentleman who introduce a musical novelty using several different brass instruments in a pleasing little specialty. On the picture programme Robert Leonard and Ella Hall, the stars in the "Master Key" will be seen in "Old Erickson's Bones," a fine drama in Old Erickson's bones. Other pictures on the bill today are "The Two Thieves" with Murdock MacQuarrie in the leading role and "Sammy's Vacation," a funny comedy by The Crystal Co. There will be four complete shows tomorrow, Christmas day, at 1.30, 3.15, 7 and 8.45.

Advantages of Tea.

Both the French and German troops are being supplied with tea in the trenches, perhaps because it is easier to make or easier to get, or perhaps for some more profoundly scientific reason. Tea is a thinner liquid and better for quenching thirst (as every cyclist and pedestrian knows) and for the same reason it keeps hot longer than coffee, which is an important consideration in the trenches. The effect on both the tea and coffee markets would be considerable. At present France and Germany, with a combined population of over 100 millions, are negligible as tea consumers. After the war a big increased demand may raise the price of tea. The corresponding decline in the demand for coffee may mean that there will be enough genuine Mocha to go round among those of us who remain faithful (or abandoned) coffee-bidders. —Manchester Guardian.

In a Forbidden City.

Mary Fisher, the first Englishwoman to have speech with the Sultan of Turkey, was not so lucky as the first Englishman to enter the forbidden city of Lhasa. For he possessed a literary friend to hand him down to fame. Thomas Manning entered Lhasa in 1811 as medical man to a Chinese army and was able to remain many months before he received peremptory orders to retire. All of which, however, is forgotten by most of us, who none the less remember Manning as the "my friend M." who was "obliging enough to explain" to Lamb the Chinese manuscript of the "Dissertation on Roast Pig." —London Chronicle.

Everything Slid.

Tuesday the children and everything else slid on a feature and Les Binos (formerly the Charivins of this city) as an added feature. Les Binos left this city some years ago and went into vaudeville, doing an equilibrium and acrobatic novelty and succeeded so well that their act was booked not only throughout the United States, but also through a large part of Europe and met with success everywhere.

Their many friends will have the pleasure of seeing the act at this house for the last three days of this week. There will be four complete shows tomorrow, Christmas day, at 1.30, 3.15, 7 and 8.45.

Streets Need Safeguarding.

On the two main streets of this village during the snow and ice season sleds are so numerous that it is dangerous for an elderly person to cross and both hills are so slippery that the people going and coming from the mill in the early morning and evening are in danger of broken bones. Canterbury Hill, where the children go over the Providence railroad track, is another dangerous place.

FALLING HAIR AND ITCHING SCALP

Surely Cease When You Use Parisian Sage—Makes the Hair Soft and Fluffy.

Now that Parisian Sage—a scientific preparation that supplies every hair and scalp need—can be had at any drug or toilet counter, at small expense, it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle matted, stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly the hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage rubbed into the scalp and through the hair, is all that is needed. Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease—the hair becomes soft, fluffy, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

Parisian Sage is surely one of the most pleasant, invigorating and refreshing hair tonics, a delicately perfumed liquid that proves its goodness the first time it is used.

Start now to improve and beautify the hair by using Parisian Sage. The Lee & Osgood Co. can supply you. It is easily used at home, and is as beneficial as it is inexpensive.

has a sawmill cutting off a large tract of woodland.

ERUPTION ON CHILD ITCHED AND BURNED

Like Water Blisters on Body, Face and Arms. Cross and Fretil. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Child Was Healed.

R. F. D. No. 2, Groton, Vt.—"My little boy's trouble began all over his body and face and arms with water blisters. They were also on his limbs and chest and he was very cross and fretful. They itched and burned and he scratched and this forced me to place Cuticura on the little one could not sleep nights.

I had two treatments and they failed to help him. I got two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and bathed the child with the Cuticura Soap twice daily, then put the Cuticura Ointment on each time. It was only a matter of two or three weeks when the child was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Eliza Hutchinson, Feb. 10, 1914.
